United Way
of Greater Stark County

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

COMPASS releases 2009 Stark County Community Indicators report

(Canton, OH) Feb. 22, 2010—COMPASS, the data center for United Way of Greater Stark County, has released a comprehensive overview of countywide trends with specific indicators and data. The annual report, entitled “2009 Stark County Community Indicators Report,” identifies trends in community living, economics, education, environment, families and households, health, neighborhood development and public safety. The free report is available online at <http://www.starkcompass.org>.

A direct service of United Way, COMPASS is an invaluable tool for researchers, realtors, policymakers, grant writers, educators, business and industry, government, students and others who need to know facts and information about our county. In addition to statistics, COMPASS posts reports and studies about our county, does comparative analyses of Stark County to Ohio and the U.S., and provides links to many other valuable sources of local and national data. Organizations and individuals are encouraged to request data about Stark County. Please contact David Thole, COMPASS Researcher at 330-491-9978 or david.thole@uwstark.org.

United Way of Greater Stark County is a not-for-profit organization that seeks to improve lives in measurable and lasting ways by mobilizing thousands of people around a common goal: advancing the common good. United Way funds programs that focus on Early Education & Care, Graduation & Training and Family Stability. United Way believes these are the building blocks for a good life and that a quality education leads to a stable job, enough income to support a family through retirement, a safe place to live and good health.
