Gold Keys, Campaign Awards presented at Breakfast

At the Day of Thanks Annual Meeting & Campaign Awards Breakfast on Mar. 24 United Way volunteers were recognized for the time, talents and gifts!

James Edwards, Dr. Mona Shay and Mack Smith were presented with Gold Keys. Edwards was nominated for his service to the American Red Cross. Dr. Shay was honored for her volunteer efforts at Western Stark Free Clinic and Mack Smith was recognized for his volunteer efforts supporting the Stark

County Urban League. Since 1961, the United Way has presented the Gold Key service award to volunteers who have continually demonstrated the highest degree of personal dedication and service in a voluntary capacity to the United Way and/or United Way service providers.

Bob and Linda DeHoff, Allison and Dan DeHoff

Linda and Bob DeHoff were honored as they retire from more than a decade of service as Alexis de Tocqueville Society co-chairs. With more than $11 million raised through their efforts, they were recognized with a new

2009 Annual Campaign Co-Chairs Vicki and Rick Haines

DeHoff Emerging Philanthropist of Stark County award named for their legacy of community giving. The DeHoffs will help develop the criteria to honor a young professional in greater Stark County for their philanthropic efforts in 2011.

Betsy Sterling accepts the Spirit of Caring campaign award for The Beaver Excavating Company. At top, Mercy Medical Center accepts their Spirit of Caring award for a company with greater than 500 employees.

Chairman's Awards for the top three giving companies were awarded by Vicki Haines, 2009 Annual Campaign Co-Chair and Scott Zurakowski, Chairman of the Board, to Aultman, The Timken Company and Diebold, Incorporated. Together, these three companies gave more than $2.11 million to the 2009 campaign!

Spirit of Caring awards are the most prestigious awards presented to workplace campaigns. First Energy, The Beaver Excavating Company and Mercy Medical Center were honored with the Spirit of Caring for their community involvement including employee and leadership giving campaigns, volunteer programs, corporate contributions and promoting year round visibility of United Way. For more about Spirit of Caring winners, click here.
